Affording views and hot tub features, this rooftop getaway brings tranquility to the inner city. Featuring attractive metal siding in Iron Ore, its frameless glass barrier affords unobstructed views.

Sleek and modern with sweeping contours and enviable function, exquisite features dominate a current vision of warm sophistication. Well-seasoned with whimsy and seeped in natural finishes, the residence peaks both elevations and interest through craftsmanship and design excellence.

Displaying inimitable curb appeal with soaring planes and clean lined styling, the home's façade features an enticing blend of finishes. Prefinished steel defines soffits in Light Pine and wall cladding in Iron Ore. Fir columns enhance the side porch and front entry made of solid larch amidst a smooth blend of acrylic stucco that edges three floors of curtain wall glass and the rooftop patio.
